DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to because the following items need to be labeled: element 102 in figure 1, element 702 in figure 8, element 1302 in figure 11. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US patent 6,268,742. Patent '742 discloses a digital filter for filtering digital data comprising a plurality of channels (figure 8, elements 226 and 268), where filter multiples an input rate by number of channels and performs a filtering operation (multiplexer, see figure 8, element 232), synthesizes filtering output and produces filtered output data (figure 8, element 200).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 2-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US patent 6,594,324 and further in view of US patent 6,268,742.
 - a. Regarding claims 2 and 10, patent '324 discloses a matched filter that includes storage for I and Q signals (figure1, element 11), a despread code generator that outputs I and Q despread code (figure1, element 8), a correlation operation section that includes multipliers and adders and outputs a correlation result ((figure1, elements 13,14,33,34), and a data restoration section for synthesizing correlations results and outputs I and Q receptions data (figure1, element 7). However, patent '324 fails to show the multiplexing of data into one filter using data division and time-sharing in filter operations. However, patent '742 discloses these functions. '742 shows the use of a multiplexer in a matched filter (figure 8, element 232). The multiplexer incorporates time-sharing and an output rate that is double the sample rate (column 7, lines 65-67). Because of the inherent nature of multiplexers, it is obvious to one skilled in the art to incorporate a multiplexer into a matched filter to one filter in place of two for the same function for reasons of reducing circuit scale.

- b. Regarding claim 6, patent '324 in view of '742 disclose a system as described above. In addition, patent '324 disclose a power adding unit (figure 1, element 7) which outputs final correlation results for I and Q signals.
- c. Regarding claims 3, 7, 11, patent '742 discloses a multiplexer which divides I and Q reception data into a number of parts, which includes the number two (figure 11b).
- d. Regarding claims 4, 8, 12, patent '324 discloses a CDMA system using matched filter described above in part a (column 1, lines 1-11).

- e. Regarding claims 5, 9, 13, patent '742 discloses a CDMA system using matched filter described above in part c (column 1, lines 11-19).
